

TachoPlus-cloud is the online application for archiving and evaluation Tachograph data. Without investment in IT infrastructure there is a highly efficient solution available, which offers more than fulfill legal requirements only. Without additional effort there is access from anywhere in the network to the TachoPlus solution. Incoming data from different telematics-systems are applied automatically to the system. With high standards in data security and an all-around competent customer support TachoPlus-cloud is the answer to the highest demands.

Access at any time regardless of location

In the company, at home or with the Notebook in the car, from anywhere around the clock available.

No investment costs

You pay only that what actually need It is based on the number of active, Driver. Investment and maintenance costs in their IT infrastructure are omitted.

Immediately available without installation

Thanks to remote desktop Windows fully into the Environment integrated without installation.

High data security

Backup and mirrored Disks are included. Modern Encryption technology protects against foreign Accesses..

Always up to date

The latest program updates and Functions are always automatically applied.

Automatic data transfer

The remote download of vehicles over telematics-systems can be easily integrated. With upload by email or web and connection to download terminals the data are be transferred fully automatic.

Competent support

A central helpdesk ensures competent customer support. In addition to correct technical-support, the focus is also excellent application-support.

Move your TachoPlus to cloud

Full data compatibility with existing TachoPlus applications to the cloud and vice versa.